Lurline With Full Passenger List.

The Matson steamer Lurline from San Francisco was reported at 6:30 this morning and at 8 o'clock was docked at the railroad wharf.

She brought a full list of passengers, there being fifty-five first-class and four steerage. A pleasant trip was experienced throughout, the sea being smooth and only enough wind to make it pleasant. The only incident worthy of mention that occurred during the voyage was the transfer at sea on Saturday of some trunks from the Wilhelmmina which had been shipped from here in error. At the same time a transfer of passengers' mail was made.

Several members of the theatrical profession for the local theaters came on the Lurline. One troupe of three will open at the Japanese theater this week under the management of A. K. Viera. A complete equipment of theatrical properties and moving picture apparatus for the new theater came down on the Lurline.

The Lurline also carried a large cargo for Honolulu, twenty-four mules, one full-blooded stallion and two thoroughbred bulls being included in the consignment for this place.
